The Rise of Non-Alcoholic & Low Beverage Trends

The non-alcoholic and low-alcohol beverage category isn't just niche anymore — it's a full-blown movement reshaping how people drink. Fueled by wellness, moderation, and elevated flavor expectations, the momentum is real:

- $595+ billion: Current global value of the non-alcoholic beverage market
- $630+ billion: Projected global value in 2025
- $5 billion: Estimated U.S. market size by 2028

What's driving the growth?

- Millennials and Gen Z are leading the charge, seeking premium, full-flavor options with lower or zero ABV
- 93% of non-alcoholic beverage buyers also drink alcohol, highlighting the rise of "blended" consumption habits
- Consumers are mixing low-, no-, and full-proof options based on mood, moment, and setting

Category innovation is thriving, with expanded offerings such as:

- Sophisticated zero-proof cocktails
- Premium non-alcoholic wines
- Functional sparkling teas and wellness sodas

We've assembled a thoughtfully curated portfolio to meet this demand — designed to support:

- Mindful, intentional sipping
- Inclusive, "all-guests" beverage menus
- Trend-forward hospitality

Our non-alcoholic and low-alcohol selections deliver the modern drinking experience: full flavor, flexibility, and zero compromise

OBSIDIAN

WINE CO.

Obsidian Wine Co. blends generations of family-rooted farming with volcanic terroir and handcrafted Hungarian-oak winemaking to deliver a distinctive, story-rich portfolio that brings nature, adventure, and authenticity

Obsidian Estate Chardonnay, Poseidon Vineyard Carneros, Napa Valley, 2023

DABS#908584 | Price: $32.99 | March Sale Price: $30.00

92 pts Wine Enthusiast

Crafted from the historic, maritime-cooled Poseidon Vineyard, this wine stands out for its slow-ripened balance and purity shaped by Carneros' foggy mornings and warm, breezy days.

TASTING NOTES

The vibrant acidity and intense fruit that this site is known for are on full display—particularly bright and citrusy in this vintage—yet mellowed somewhat by the roundness of texture that comes from aging in Hungarian oak. For as crisp as this wine is, the mouthfeel is lush and full, and the flavors and finish are fruitful and complex.

Obsidian Volcanic Estate Cabernet Sauvignon Red Hills Lake County, 2022

DABS#491040 | Price: $34.99 | March Sale Price: $26.99

94 pts Wine Enthusiast

Obsidian wines are the only Cabernet Sauvignons in California (perhaps the world) aged in 100% Hungarian oak barrels.

TASTING NOTES

The Volcanic Estate Cabernet is the signature wine of Obsidian Ridge Vineyard and embodies the complexity and wildness of the site. The structure and intensity of upper blocks is complemented by aromatics and acidity of cooler blocks. The extreme climate, altitude, and volcanics of the site result a wine with distinct volcanic character—intense color, aroma and flavor, with a freshness and minerality that typifies the site.
